THE CONFEDERATION

OF NEWFOUNDLAND WITH CANADA

Is Being Considered By Dominion Government.—To Purchase Greenland From Denmark.

(Bulletin Special Dispatch.)

Ottawa, Dec. 21.—The Dominion government has now under consideration the question of getting Newfoundland joined to Canada and also of purchasing Greenland from Denmark.

This is the result of the unsatisfactory decision in the Alaska boundary case. While Canada and Newfoundland can enter into negotiations as to their union, it will be necessary for the Dominion to negotiate through the imperial authorities with Denmark for the purchase of Greenland. So far nothing official can be obtained.

VEGREVILLE

Mr. W. Hawthorne, proprietor of the Grand Central here, along with Messrs. Spence and Robertson paid a visit to the Barr colony this week. When they got out last week the weather was exceedingly cold but it has greatly moderated during the past few days.

Messrs. Thos. Tearney, Jas. Williams, M. Dunham and Oscar Chiwell are off to the bush to take out logs for lumber for building purposes.

Many loads of lumber passed through Vegreville during the last few days bound for the Barr colony. In appearance the loads were small, although when they were necessary to perform the operation. When all the cost of transporting this lumber is counted, it will be found to cost as much or more than many kinds of foreign lumber imported for fine cabinet and furniture work. If the lumber had been floated down the river in proper time a great deal of the present expense would not have been incurred.

Rev. Field, Presbyterian missionary at Beaver Lake, proposes holding a regular weekly service here at 3 p. m., every Sabbath afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Cole are gone to Edmonton this week.

A calf belonging to Mrs. Williams, this week ended its earthly career by committing suicide by choking itself to death. A horse belonging to a Hudson not far from Vegreville also hung itself by its better shank and death ensued.

December 18th.

Sound Advice.

"Take a little wine, for thy stomach's sake and thine often infirmities." This is good advice, if not followed over-zealously. But the ancient sage forgot the important part — buy it at the Hudson's Bay store. For about 230 years we have had the reputation of furnishing the best family wines and spirits. Try a bottle or half gallon of our Extra Port or Visa Sherry.

All ladies like our Tarragon wine. Invigorating and delicious, with very low percentage of alcohol. Imported direct from Spain. Just the thing for afternoons and receptions. Costs only slightly more than native wines, at Hudson's Bay stores.

A reputation is not made without reason. Nearly anybody will tell you that the Hudson's Bay store is the place for cloth skirts or jackets. Ditto blouses.

Fashion's latest fad is a jet chain around the neck for holding the muff. Rather a nice idea. The correct thing costs only $1.00 at the Hudson's Bay stores.

If the "just as good" kind suits you buy candies elsewhere. But it costs no more to get the best if you go to the Hudson's Bay store. We make a specialty of having the best chocolate creams that can be got, and they're always fresh. Loose at 40c a pound, or in handsome one or two pound boxes, mixed chocolates, or chocolates and creams mixed, at 40c and 75c the box.

The same old joke still goes in the papers about the boxes of cigars that well intentioned wives give to their husbands. That joke doesn't apply to wives who buy their husbands' cigars at the Hudson's Bay store. We can tell you just the kind that he likes. In boxes of 25 or 50; also some of the choicest lines specially put up for us in little boxes of ten.

"The nicest I have seen since I left Toronto, and just as cheap, too." That is what an Ontario lady said the other day, while buying a silk blouse at the Hudson's Bay store. That is what YOU'LL say, too.

And flannel blouses, too. People who see ours don't often buy elsewhere. You wouldn't.

And blouse lengths: A few of those wash silks left at $1.50 for blouse length, also at $2.50 and $4. Lovely French flannels, daintiest patterns, at $1.25 and $1.50 the length.

Mrs. J. Marshall and Jules Franzen, who have been visiting their mother, Mrs. E. Chisley, returned to Strathcona on Friday last.

It is quite evident that sleighing will be somewhat of a luxury for Christmas; for as that holiday draws near the rumbling of the wagons on the roads becomes more deafening as the incessant stream of people continues pouring in from every direction toward the town, in quest of their Christmas supplies.

Mr. J. Kennedy, of Poplar Lake, has installed a new grain chaffing apparatus at his home. He announces that the machine, which has a capacity of 1,000 bushels a day, will be in operation every Thursday afternoon, for the farmers who have grain to chaff. As the price charged for chaffing will be very reasonable, many of the farmers in this district will avail themselves of this opportunity.

CHRISTMAS CANTATA

The cantata, How We Waited For Santa Claus, to be given by the Edmonton Presbyterian Sunday school scholars under the direction of Miss Edith Webster has the promise of being one of the most successful Christmas entertainments yet given in Edmonton. Upwards of one hundred and fifty scholars, as well as a number of grown people, will take part. The costumes are splendid, very superior to the ordinary Christmas costumes. Nine fairies take a very prominent part in the entertainment, a very interesting part of which is the mistake the children make in taking Jack Frost, who suddenly appears on the stage, for Santa Claus. Santa Claus later appears in all his mystic robes, much to the delight of the children. A boys' brigade will give a very clever drill. The Sunday school orchestra will assist in the cantata, which will be given on Christmas night.
